*"Oh, the games people play now,
every night and every day now,*

never meaning what they say now, never saying what they mean . . . ”

Joe South

Is life a series of games to be met and mastered? Do we take our games too seriously and trivialize our more important activities and relationships?

*Is flirting a game?
Is school a game?
Is life a game?*

Is what Grantland Rice said true, that:

*"When the One Great Scorer comes to write against your name,
He marks—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game"?*

What is a game?

*A game is a mental or physical contest played according to rules.
A game is any situation in which two or more people control a set of variables.*

A game is any activity involving luck, skill, and knowledge.

A game can be relaxing, exciting or challenging. It can also be frustrating, boring or demoralizing.

But what happens when the rules change, when one's skills are inappropriate or when one's luck has run out?

At J.H.S. everyday we play the dating, and the grading game. We get involved in the money game. Sometimes we get caught up in malicious backbiting and political games. We play one-up manship. We play love games and war games.

We play games with our food, our friends, and our family. We play physical, mental, and social games, together and alone.

But gamesmanship has not yet completely replaced a gentleman's or a lady's code of behavior. There are still standards of living and learning and loving apart from the game.

The essential thing is to be aware and know. Is this a game? Do I really want to play? Am I playing to win? How far will I go?

The essential thing is to be aware and know. Is this a game? Do I really want to play? Am I playing to win? How far will I go?

*"Oh the games people play now,
every night and every day now.*

Talkin' 'bout you and me and the games people play." Joe South

All through recorded time, the game of life has consisted of competition between those who relish security and those who relish adventure and challenge; between those who know and those who seek to know; between those who lead and those who follow . . . Diversity is the name of the game and JHS Red Devils play it well.

Make All The Right Moves

Seniors

Seniors

Four years of dedication and hard-work resulted in Christy Rutledge and Constance Benton being selected to lead the Class of 1985. The two girls are pictured at the right: Christy Rutledge, President and Constance Benton, Vice-President.

Senior class sponsors are five teachers who are responsible for holding the senior class together. They stay busy all year writing newsletters, assisting with the ordering of caps and gowns, helping to plan baccalaureate and commencement exercises, and seeing that everyone has the right name on his/her diploma. They are an organized group who know how to make all the right moves.

As the end of the school year draws near, the seniors are reflecting upon people and events that made their high school years memorable. They will never forget term papers . . . registration . . . curriculum changes . . . Mrs. Arthur's trip to Jekyll Island . . . band practice . . . Mr. Fells' ecology class . . . play tryouts . . . literary meets . . . Miss Sanders' gravity race . . . weight training . . . the prom . . . Governor's Honors interviews . . . homework . . . the Science fair . . . lunch lines . . . library fines . . . Mr. McLaurin's lectures . . . Student Council elections . . . homecoming . . . Coach Hector's P.E. class . . . softball state championships . . . the new gym . . . lost book reports . . . Spanish classes . . . The class of '85 should be inspired but not trapped by these memories. Each new day will bring more exciting and adventurous encounters. The past will form the foundation for future successes. Of course, the hearts and minds of seniors are filled with mixed emotions about what the future holds. Therefore, the members of the class of '85 must learn from past experiences in order to make all the right moves in the future.

SENIORS SUPERLATIVES

The Best of '85

Seniors

Seniors

Being selected as a Senior Superlative is quite an honor at JHS. For a student to receive this recognition from his peers he must make good grades, participate in extra-curricular activities, and express a pleasing personality. Those selected as superlatives for 1985 have all exhibited qualities of leadership, dedication, and friendliness during their four years at JHS. On a bright winter afternoon the superlatives met on the porches of the home of Mr. J.R. Carmichael on McDonough Road to have their pictures made. The lovely house, which was built in the early 1800's, is on the national register of historic homes.

All the Right Moves

I don't ask for paradise,
just space to call my own.
It won't mean a thing to me if I go there alone.
They promised us we'd have our chance,
that's all we're asking for.
A lucky break is overdue,
can't wait anymore.
I'll look beyond these small town streets,
and see the world out there.
On, anyone can call their own
If they'd only dare.
There's no more for us than giving in,
and only getting by.
They say we're gonna sink or swim,
but we intend to fly.
If we make all the right moves,
we can show them all
There's no way we can lose
if we make all the right moves.
We can show them all
there's no way we can lose
If we make all the right moves.

Senior superlatives can be found participating in almost every activity at JHS from football to softball to drama rehearsals to classes and even to lunch. The superlatives on this page are pictured left to right: Top, Michelle Hartsfield, Michele Jones Middle, Lori Bolton, Ronald Rivers Bottom, Brenda Sims, Christy Rutledge, Paula Wise, Rad Maddox Right Side, Stan Maddox, Shane Phillips. Lyrics to the above song by Jennifer Warren.

Cabbage Patch Kids

Guess what I did?

Playgirl centerfold.

Fa La LaLa ...

I'm filling in for Pebbles.

You say Chippendale's wants me?

Yo Ho Ho and a bottle of rum!

Has anyone seen my white glove?

Look out Mr. T.

Girls! Yuk!

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star ...

M&M's melt in your mouth.

Yeah, I'm cool!

This tent will never sell.

Are my ponytails even?

I'm just thinking.

I promise as first Lady President ...

Duh, I don't know.

Mirror, mirror on the wall ...

I just wanted a trim!

Ain't I cute!

Alfalfa had the same problem too.

For names see page 177.

The sophomore year is the year of high school when one decides if he is going to become a participant in the game or if he is going to remain a spectator on the sidelines. When one decides to join the game he soon finds that the sophomore year is filled with struggles if one is not prepared for all the extra work and studying that is involved in becoming a winner. This year, however, many sophomores chose to play the game and have made it look easy. They scored well in academic achievements, and also dived into extra-curricular activities such as cheerleading, band, athletics, clubs, and student government. Amidst the work, sophomores took some time out for fun as they ordered class rings, attended school dances, and learned to drive a car.

FRESHMEN ACE JHS

For freshmen entering JHS at the novice level, the school year began amid intense excitement and utter confusion. There were so many new rules to learn and new strategies to master if they hoped to emerge winners four years down the road. However, the freshmen were equal to the challenge set before them and as the year progressed they slowly shed the last remnants of childhood innocence and childish ways and began to grow in maturity, mind, and stature. Through hard work and determination they achieved success in all areas of school life—academics, sports, clubs, etc. They proved themselves as individuals and as JHS Red Devils.

Elected to lead their classmates were freshman officers Pamela Stodghill and Deborah Upshaw, class President and Vice-President respectively.

Aiding and supporting them through the year were their freshman advisors: Mr. Fells, Mr. Dial, Miss Vogt, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Wilkes, and Mrs. O'Connor.

Those people who dare to be different are the ones who add flair to JHS. Instead of becoming involved with athletic practices and contests, club meetings and activities, band rehearsals and performances, academic endeavors, or other school functions, many JHS students spend their afterschool hours at a place of work. The jobs vary from common to exciting. Reasons for working are just as varied. Some students work to defer the cost of owning and operating a vehicle. Others work to help support their families, while others are preparing for life long careers. Through the DCT program, 75 students leave school early everyday. Each one works between 25 and 40 hours per week. An unestimated number of students report to work as soon as the 3:10 bell rings every afternoon. Some of these working students are featured here.

Caroline Storey works five days a week at the Sears Catalog Store. Her duties include taking and filing catalog orders, handling problems with merchandise, and operating the cash register. Robbie Thurston, an employee at Giant Mart, stocks shelves with groceries and carries groceries to customers' cars. Derron Deraney, a junior who hopes to have a career in the field of banking and finance, is employed at McIntosh State Bank. Learning how to install pools as well as acquiring the skills of plumbing and construction, is a part of Billy Dahlin's job at Patterson Pool Supply. John Branch spends his free time assisting customers and assembling merchandise at Hometown Hardware. Denise Warren works three days a week at her family's business, Sure Power. Her most important responsibility is doing accounts payable and receivable on the Word Processor. Pictured at the left is (top, left to right) Caroline Storey, Robbie Thurston, Derron Deraney, (bottom left to right) Billy Dahlin, John Branch, Denise Warren.

Games People Play . . .
Alan Parsons Project

On August 27, 676 people set foot on the JHS campus. For some it was the beginning of their high school careers and for others it was the time to begin taking final steps to achieve the goal of graduation. Everyone was involved in playing his or her own game in order to accomplish his or her goals.

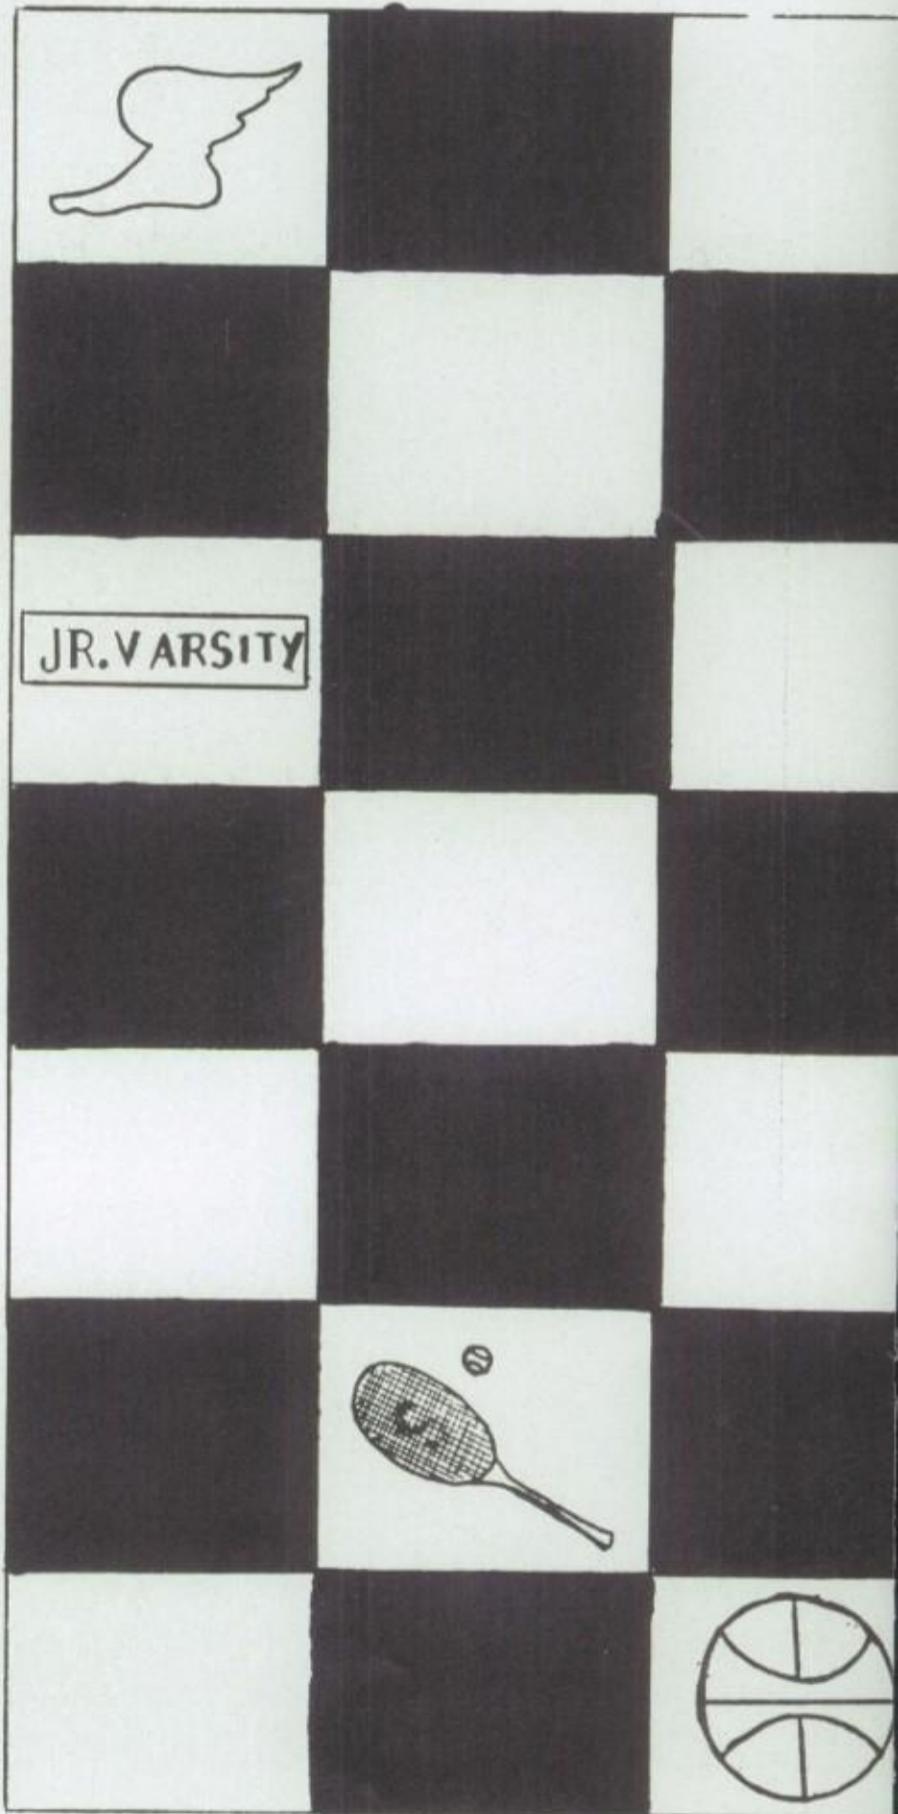

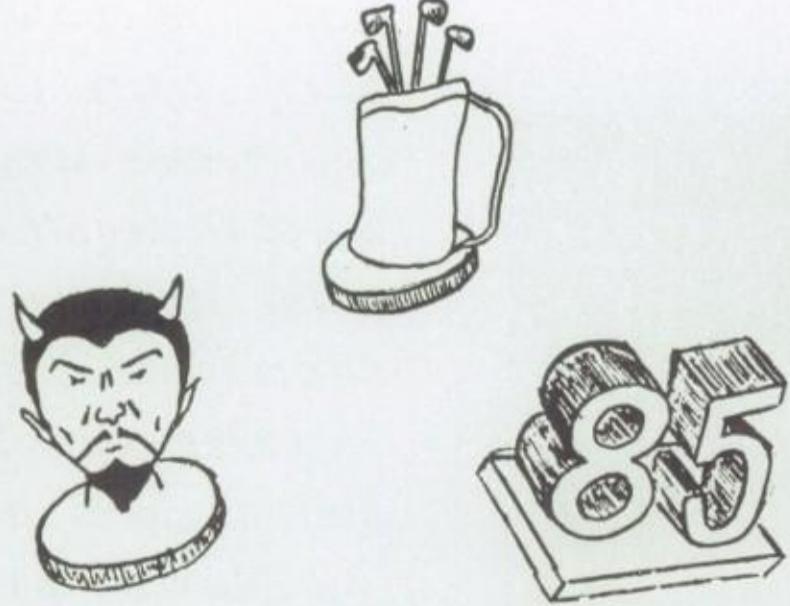

The whiplash of a crowded hallway . . . the satisfaction of a good halftime show . . . the quietness of the library . . . the pangs of pre-lunch hunger . . . the sternness of a lecture . . . the whirring hum of a vacuum . . . the warmth of a hug . . . the giggle of love . . . the gaze into a mirror . . . and the rush to beat the bell are a small part of the games people played in 1985.

Games People Play

Everybody competes in some way against everyone else. Athletic games we play give individuals and teams the chance to "outplay" those individuals and teams who will attempt to negate our game-plans and bar our advancement. The Jackson Red Devils are fierce competitors and are seldom "outplayed" by anyone.

Devils Gambol in the Spring

In the spring, when the sun is bright, but the air is still cool, there arises in the blood of a Red Devil the desire to be outside at play.

Little Red Devils frolic about with rackets, bats, balls, and hurdles. They toss shot puts and the discus.

On every playing field physical powers are being exhibited.

Spring Sports 1984 are covered at right.

Baseball

For the twelfth consecutive year, the Jackson High School Red Devil baseball team finished at the top of its subregion with a 12 and 2 win-loss record, tied with Pike Co.

The region tournament, however, was an unsuccessful one for the Devils, as they beat Wilkinson Co., but lost the final to Pike.

The Devils finished second in region 3-AA, and many of the young team will be back next year.

Tennis

The JHS tennis team, coached by Vernon Wilkes had a successful 1984 season with a record of 5-3. The players, Chris Howell, Holly Brown, Sammy Smith, Anthony Lawson, Kim McCormick, Wade Grant, Christy Rutledge, Jacki Hunt, Bill Malone, Glenn Grant, Randy Browning, and Ryan Adcock, led the team all the way to subregion play-offs where they were defeated. Although six seniors have left the '84-'85 tennis team, the remaining players have the potential for an ace of a team!

Golf

Although the JHS golf team won only two matches out of eight last year, Coach Pippin is expecting a good 84-85 season. Several members of the 83-84 golf team will be returning, bringing experience and knowledge, assuring them of a successful season. These members are Clyde Newman, Stan Maddox, Tony Stewart, and Ross Duke. These golfers, along with the rest of the team, plan to putt their way to victory.

Track

According to Coach Charles Garrard, although the 1984 boys track team did well this year, they were not as strong as they have been in the past. Two members placed in the regional meet. They were Seneica Allen, 5th in the 220; and Paul Whitmire, 2nd in the shotput and the discus. Both will be returning in 1985.

The girls track team began training early this year and placed 3rd in the subregion. Jennifer Maddox had a state qualifying time in the 440 yard dash. "Overall they did very well," said Coach Homer Hector.

Lady Devils Glide into Second State Championship

Jackson High's Lady Devils are still number one in the state. They had another tremendous season with twenty-two wins and zero losses.

Led by the hitting power of the Sims twins and Kim Jones, and backed up by the superior defense of Christy Rutledge, Jennifer McLendon, and Paula Wise, the Devils overwhelmed all opponents. Angie Cochran's pitching was never off. She walked very few players all season and was always on top of her game.

Jenny Vogt has played a big part in these games; she has been both their coach and their friend. "She shows concern for all her players," said Jen McLendon.

J.V. FOOT

The Junior Varsity Football team under the excellent coaching of Lee Hector and Bill Nelson, emerged from the 1984 season with a record of 2 wins, 3 losses, and one tie.

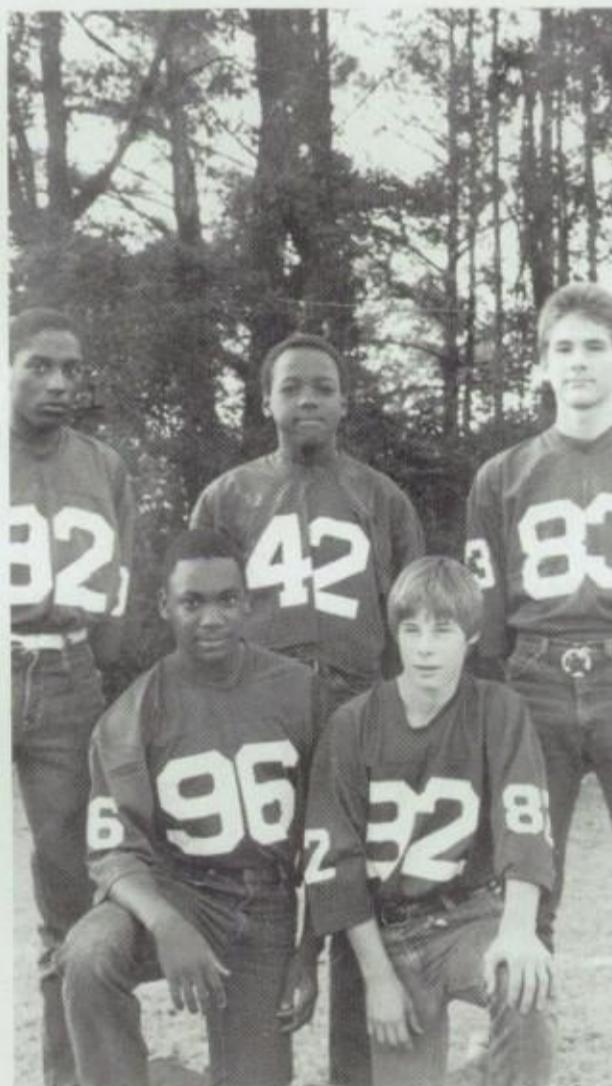

On September 7th, the Jr. Devils started the season on a bad note with an 8-0 loss against the Manchester Blue Devils. Their courage still undaunted, Jackson pulled a 13-12 win on October 4th, when they played the R.E. Lee Rebels in Upson County. Jackson exploded against the Mary Persons Bulldogs during the 1st half of the game, but the Bulldogs made a come-back during the 2nd half to even the score to a 14-14 tie. The Jr. Devils last home game was played against the Pike County Pirates. Both teams played well, but Jackson was edged out 2 points for a final score of 16-14 in Pike County's favor. November 1st marked the last game of the season for the Jr. Varsity team. Jackson travelled to Monroe County to play the Mary Persons' Bulldogs once again. The Jr. Devils tried their best, but unfortunately they ended the season with a 14-0 loss.

LEADERS

Tryouts in May signified a new beginning for the Varsity Football Cheerleaders. Over half the girls chosen to the squad for 1984 were rookies.

Under the leadership of Alison Marsh as captain, the girls were shaped into a cheerleading squad. By August the squad was ready to go to camp. Attending camp at the University of Georgia, the cheerleaders competed against eighty other squads and came out with several excellent awards. New outfits gave the cheerleaders a new enthusiasm, and throughout the season, the squad maintained that special pizzazz which never failed to rouse school spirit.

CHEERLEADERS

Of the more than twenty girls who tried out for the basketball cheerleading squad, eight of the most-spirited and most-talented were selected. During twenty season games, two tournaments, and regional play-offs, the squad was always there to cheer for the Red Devils. The pep and enthusiasm they exhibited supported the teams through defeat and added excitement to victory. Under the guidance of sponsor Angela Mills, the basketball '84-85 cheerleaders were: Kim Jackson, Arnita Eusery, LaTonya Foster, Pleshett McCrary, Pam Smith, Pippi Bailey, Sonya Smith, and Tracy McKibben.

BASKETBALL

After several years of rebuilding, the boys basketball had hopes of winning the region title this year. After ending an on again and off again regular season with a record of 10 wins and 12 losses, the team entered region competition. In the first round of the region tournament, the Devils came from behind and defeated Pike County with a score of 37-32. Their hopes for a region championship were trounced by a loss of 46-33 to the Crawford County Eagles.

Even though the boys did not win a region championship, they showed much improvement because they doubled their 1984 record of wins. Only two seniors, Scottie Hunter and William Stewart, ended their high school basketball careers. Coach Caugherty believes that this year's winning record and experience will lead to an even better season in 1986.

BASKETBALL

This year, the Lady Devils basketball team gave Devil fans much excitement during the usually gray and dreary winter months. The team finished the regular season with a record of 18 wins and 2 loses. In late February the sharp shooting, high scoring team entered the region competition. In the first round game of region play, the Lady Devils sank the Pike County Lady Pirates by a score of 59-23. Advancing to the semifinals, the Lady Devils hosted Manchester and were victorious by a score of 83-64. In the final round, the Lady Devils defeated the Lady Warriors of Wilkinson County. With a score of 61-53, the Lady DeDevils brought home the Region 3-AA championship. At the time of the yearbook deadline, the Lady Devils were scheduled to play Seminole County in the first round of state competition.

For their accomplishments on the basketball court, THE ATLANTA JOURNAL ranked the Lady Devils as the number ten team in the state. Coach Jenny Vogt said there were many reasons for the team's success however she said the main factor was that she had four players who could put points on the scoreboard. Therefore, one player was not relied on for scoring. In 1986, the team will be rebuilding because six of its key players are seniors.

The Lady Devils in action are pictured on these two pages. (Top row, far left) Jennifer McLendon waits for the rebound. (Left page, top row, middle) Lady Trojans surround Lady Devils. Games People Play

The games we play can be divided into 3 main categories—games devoted to pleasure, games devoted to contemplation, and games devoted to action. Often, each person, in order to increase productivity or quality as well as rewards, must share his life and the actions of his time with others. At JHS positive club action and sharing are more than part of a game, they are a Red Devil way of life.

CLUBS Student Council

Student Council, the governing body of JHS students, provides activities which help to unify the school.

The club has had a very busy schedule throughout the year as they sponsored special projects each month. Some of these were a Toys For Tots Campaign, Student Against Drunk Driving Day, Staff Appreciation Week, club day, and Spring Cleaning Week.

Under the supervision of Marian Sanders and Susan Taylor, Student Council has had a great amount of participation from some very creative and very active students.

FLAG CORPS

In a blur of color and movement the flag corp astounded spectators at every JHS football game. With Sebrena Jefferson as flag captain, twelve very coordinated girls put in many long and hard hours of practice to make the new flag corp a success.

During the summer Nancy Peche, owner of a dance studio in Barnesville, taught the girls basic dance steps and flag movements to prepare them for the 1984 football season.

This year, to add to the flag corp's already exciting halftime act, the group purchased new multi-colored flags. Ernie Thompson, band director, said that he was very pleased with the way the girls handled themselves, but he hopes to recruit more girls next year to make the flag corp even bigger and better.

Drill Team

Dedication, perserverance, and determination are all characteristics of the band members at JHS. After years of dwindling participation, the band is finally starting to rebuild.

Under the leadership of Ernie Thompson, much progress has been made.

Thompson, a former band director at Lamar Co. Middle School, has made many changes since his arrival to JHS. With the cooperation of band members, and many hours of practice, Thompson formed a drill team, flag corp, and a symphonic marching band.

Since Thompson had never worked with high school students before, he was very excited about coming to Jackson. Thompson said, "I wanted a new challenge, and I got one!"

Thompson sees that his first challenge is that of rebuilding a band that has been formerly devastated by the constant changing recruiting of junior high students into the band was the first step. By encouraging these students to participate, the chance of having a bigger and more experienced band, is increased.

Plans to compete with other schools should take place in four or five years. Many long hours of practice have been put to use by the dedicated members of the band. Their activities this year included football games, pep rallies, Christmas concerts, spring concerts, and, for some very talented players, All State Competition.

HONOR SOCIETY

Honor Society is a selected group of students whose overall average is an A or better. The Honor Society is designed to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render services, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage the development of character in all students who attend Jackson High School.

The Honor Society raises money annually through school sponsored activities. Each year the money is given to a graduating member in the form of a Honor Society Scholarship. The club also sponsors Honors Day each May to recognize exceptional achievements in academics.

VICA

"Preparing for leadership in the world of work," is the motto of the Jackson High chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Their theme this year is "The new professionals: Excellence in Action." Activities throughout the year help fulfill the club's purpose of enhancing leadership and occupational skills as well as providing members the opportunity to interact in skill competitions with other VICA students in Georgia and surrounding states.

The '84-85 club agenda was a full one. During fall quarter, members held a Chicken-que and a yard sale to raise funds for their VICA Employer-Employee dinner to be held in late spring. Winter quarter, members sharpened their business and leadership skills for participation in the VICA Skill Olympics held February 28. VICA Week, also in February, kept members busy with planned activities each day. Preparations for participation in the annual Muscular-Dystrophy Drive and the hosting of the banquet honoring area businessmen who employed VICA-DCT students took up most of spring quarter.

Mr. Darrell Pippin, club advisor, is proud of his club and its members and, as always, looks forward to next year and the promise it holds.

VOCA, Vocational Opportunities Clubs of America, was established to develop leadership abilities through participation in educational, vocational, civic, recreational, and social activities. VOCA also helps to develop a sense of pride and competition by taking part in various club activities.

Among the activities which the club participated in this year were the Local, Region, and State VOCA Contest, National Vocational Education Week, Officer Training Conference, and the State VOCA Club of the Year Contest.

Over the past two years, VOCA has won a superior rating for its outstanding work. VOCA planned to carry out several special projects during this year. For the school project, VOCA planned to mark numbers on the parking places in the student parking lot. For the community project, VOCA collected and distributed food to needy families, sponsored several teacher appreciation functions as well as Parents' Visitation Night.

HOMECOMING '84

once the night away. (Chris Thurston and Betsy Carmichael)

"We cool! We bad!" (Terry Smith and Chris Taylor)

As early as August, plans were being made for the 1984 Homecoming celebration. Then enthusiasm grew and grew and grew until everyone, faculty and students, went crazy with JHS spirit.

Everyone had a task to complete before Homecoming, but student council members especially were at their best as they planned a full week of activities. Spiked or teased hair, made-up faces, and wild clothes were considered "high fashion" on Monday as Homecoming week began. The theme for the day was "Let's get excited" and the atmosphere was totally punk. Coming to school on Tuesday was like stepping back in time as fifties day claimed the prize for best class participation. Poodle skirts, penny loafers, slick hair, and leather jackets were back in style by the end of the school day. Since the Devil's opponent in the Homecoming game was the Harris County Tigers, Wednesday was proclaimed "Trash the Tigers Day." Everyone put his or her creativity to work and tried to out-do each other by creating and wearing outrageous outfits made from trash bags. The excitement reached a climax on Thursday. Everyone wore red, white, or blue clothing and cheered madly at the only pep rally held during the football season. Friday night finally arrived with Meatrice Taylor crowned as Miss Homecoming and the Devils 35-6 victory over Harris County.

Student Council was not the only organization participating in Homecoming. FBLA was once again successful with its spirit chain contest. Each class competed to see who could buy the most links. Since each link sold for a nickel, FBLA earned a small fortune when they sold 10,000 links! By Thursday, the juniors had the longest spirit chain and were proclaimed the most spirited class at JHS. FHA sponsored the first Mr. JHS contest. Co-Ed-Y's candidate, Chris Thurston, was voted as the best looking, most talented, friendliest guy at JHS.

After the big victory, a celebration sock-hop was held in the gym. The main attraction was a slide show from the yearbook class which previewed the 1985 Imprint. Chris Howell, a disc jockey from WJGA, provided the music. The sock hop, sponsored by Co-Ed-Y and KEY Club, ended a very successful homecoming week that will be remembered for years to come.

"We are Punk!" (Linda Sims and Christy Rutledge)

"Keep with the beat, don't go THAT crazy!" (Sandra Weaver)

"Daddy, are you nervous too?" (Mr. Victor James & daughter, Lisa)

"I've made it!" (Meatrice Taylor & Anthony Noble)

Homecoming Glamour

Every little girl dreams of someday becoming a part of the homecoming court. This year, that dream came true for six lovely young ladies. Shanna Thurman, Lisa James, Lyndra Akins, Lori Bolton, Cindy Watkins, and Meatrice Taylor were selected to represent their respective classes during homecoming week. The girls were nominated by their classmates on the basis of beauty, personality, academic achievements, and athletic ability. For Meatrice Taylor, the dream was even nicer because the student body selected her as Miss Homecoming 1984.

In the past, twelve girls were selected to serve on the homecoming court. Student Council, however, decided to limit the number this year to six girls. Miss Marian Sanders, Student Council advisor, remarked, "Reducing the size of the court brought more honor and more prestige to the girls because the competition was keener."

Seniors Shine

Randy Browning, Jackson High's top scorer on the national SAT, was named STAR student for the 1984-85 school year for his accomplishment. Randy chose as his STAR teacher Mrs. Carole Lunsford, JHS math instructor and Math Department Chairperson. After graduation, Randy plans to attend Georgia Tech and major in Economics.

Juniors Movin' Up GHP Nominees

The annual selection of Governor's Honors Program participants is eagerly and anxiously awaited by the nominees. Each year hundreds of students from high schools throughout the state are nominated, but only a select few are chosen.

This year JHS has nominated three top students for the six-week summer program. RICKY RIVERS was nominated in the vocational area. If selected, Ricky's academic achievements, job experience, and his desire and determination to succeed will surely stand him in good stead during the in-depth study of business management this summer.

WADE MEREDITH was nominated in the social studies division of the academic area. A true history buff with a keen interest in politics and human endeavors, Wade excels not only in social studies but in other academic areas as well. If selected, he hopes the intense summer program will further prepare him for his future in politics.

SHELLEY HOLLAND was nominated in the Fine Arts division. Drama has always been one of her main interests and in the last two years she has sharpened her dramatic skills through participation in Literary Meets, One-Act plays, and a major full length production. Excited by the prospect of expanding her talents, Shelley is but one of three Red Devils who play the selection waiting game.

A Meeting of the Minds

Extemporaneous Speaking: Wade Meredith and Michele Jones.

Oral Interpretation: Glenn Grant and Shelly Holland.

Essay: Justin Waits and Laura Mangham.

Excelling in the classroom is to be admired, but excelling in academic competition is an even greater accomplishment. Each year the top students are selected to represent JHS in regional competition in six academic areas: Extemporaneous Speaking, Oral Interpretation, Essay, Home Economics, Spelling, and Typing. The meet also includes the One-Act Play competition and competitions in four musical events. Literary Meet was held March 16 at the Lamar County Comprehensive High School.

Home Economics: Melissa Carter.

Spelling: Adele Mitchell and Randy Browning.

Typing: Debbie Hamlin.

The Sound of Music

Girls' Trio

Girl's Solo

Boys' Quartet

The sound of music is what these young people heard everyday for eight weeks as they prepared for the 1985 Literary Meet. The Literary meet is a competition among high school students all over the state. There are two competitive parts to the meet, the actual literature section and the musical section. On this page are the students who represented JHS at the meet in music. The students participating in the meet formed a boys' quartet, a girls' trio, and a girl's solo. The competition required each group to prepare one classical and one popular piece to sing. Through the guidance and training of music teacher, Beth Childs, these students learned and perfected many songs. The members of the group are girls' trio, Alison Marsh, Deanna Evans, and Shelley Holland; boys' quartet, Michael Brewer, Bob Farrigan, Doug Hansen, and Melton Campbell; and girl's solo, Pam Morton.

Play Night at JHS

The drama class at its best this year with the production of four one-act plays. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Houghtaling, the class learned a great deal about the many aspects of the theatrical field through lectures, discussions, and experiences.

They presented "Paul wrecks the car," "Once upon a playground," "Tap Dancing in Molasses," "Breaking up is hard to do," on one-act play night. The group traveled to Gordon Jr. College in Barnesville, December 8, and performed "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do" in the region one-act play competition. The group placed fourth in the contest.

Larkin's advice is not to give any advice.

Lori pushes Christy off the box.

Deanna rejoices about her indulgent father.

Billy knows what happened to the keys.

Betsy and Ryan grow old together.

Rad receives check for insurance.

Jacki teaches Lisa how to jump rope.

Cindy breaks the news to Stan.

Clyde complains about the tap dancing.

Carol relaxes with the NEW YORK TIMES.

The girls get together to play.

Red Devils present "Lil' Abner"

During winter quarter the drama class spent man hours memorizing and rehearsing lines for the senior class play, "Lil' Abner." Under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Houghtaling the play was performed on March 21 before the student body and on March 22 for the public. Starring in the play were Doug Hansen as Lil' Abner and Pam Morton as Daisy Mae Scragg. Other leading characters were Clyde Newman as Marrin' Sam, Larkin Lee as Pappy Yokum, and Deanna Evans as Mammy Yokum.

Dede Durrett, Denise Warren, Shane Phillips, and Jacki Hunt meet in Washington to discuss the effect of Yokumberry Tonic.

Glenn Grant plays "Love and Marriage" as Mrs. Houghtaling gives guidance.

All right you fear crazed bachelors and love-starved maidens—Sadie Hawkins Day has begun.

Clyde Newman waits for the introduction before singing "Jubilation T. Compone."

Deanna Evans explains to Christy Rutledge that her horizons are broad enough.

Grier and Jester Exchange Mock Vows

As many have witnessed in Family Relations, marriage is a very serious and involved situation. Those who have taken the course have learned that much time and money goes into a wedding. Miss Knapp teaches the class, and she says the reason for the mock marriage is to help teach the students about the responsibility that goes into a marriage. Not only the ceremony, but the relationship, too, is important. The wedding ceremony, which is enacted yearly with students playing different roles, also teaches etiquette and food service. Members in the wedding were as follows: Patrina Grier, bride; Carlton Jester, groom; Meatrice Taylor, maid-of-honor and singer; Ernest Ingram, best man; Angela Marshall, flower girl; Teresa Watkins, Shelly Lloyd, and Tina Lassiter, bridesmaids; Ben Walker, Ricky McEachin, and Wesley Walker, ushers; Adele Mitchell, pastor; Melissa Carter, photographer; Luann Knight, Marcia McDaniel, Connie Collins, Sandy Thurston, Ruthie Adams, servers.

The Price Was Right

At 11:30 on October 8, everyone who could get out of class and to the nearest television set was watching "The Price is Right." No, students were not rebelling against an endless amount of classwork. Instead, they were anxiously awaiting the appearance of Mrs. Linda Arthur, JHS English teacher, on the popular daytime game show.

During June of last summer, Mrs. Arthur and her husband vacationed in California. While they were there, they just happened to catch a taping of "The Price is Right."

"I just about died when my name was called as a contestant," Mrs. Arthur commented. "I was only kidding when I told a group of people that I would win."

Mrs. Arthur didn't just win, she won big! To get out of contestant's row Mrs. Arthur won a china cabinet by correctly estimating its price. While on stage, Mrs. Arthur played the Price Range Game and won a 1984 Pontiac 1000. According to all who watched the show, Bob Barker, the show's host, will never be the same. Pictured to the right is Mrs. Arthur with her car.

Father Goose

Michael Brewer admitted that at first he was not eager to earn extra elective hours by assisting the Jackson Kindergarten staff every morning. His views changed, however, and Michael spent his first period class during the school year assisting Mrs. Martha Jones' kindergarten class. Michael liked working with the children so much that he often arrived at the kindergarten at 8:00, which was twenty-five minutes before other JHS students even thought of beginning class. To start the day, he helped the children cross the street from the Primary School to the Kindergarten. On rainy days he could often be found stopping traffic so the children could cross the street quickly and safely. As the children arrived in class he helped them put up their jackets and lunchboxes. Michael commented, "During class there is always a pair of pants that need to be snapped, a belt that needs to be buckled, and a shoe string that needs to be tied." Michael's other duties included reading stories to the children, helping the children learn their alphabet and numbers, and teaching the children to color. Even though Michael found that working with young children was both challenging and rewarding, he is seeking a career as an emergency medical technician. Pictured to the right is Michael Brewer assisting a youngster at the Jackson Kindergarten.

Flippin' Out

"There's a new group in town who are really up in the air. And they aren't going to stand still for anyone. On the other hand, they will bend over backward for everyone. Everyone who comes to their performances, that is."

So began the JACKSON PROGRESS-ARGUS report of the Jackson Gyms, a performing gymnastics team formed this year to give its members the opportunity to "do something" with their talent and to ultimately help them become a competitive team. Sponsor Jane Lofton says the team is really great on the mats, but lacks experience on the bars, balance beam, and vault because they do not have the necessary equipment.

Performances during halftime at home basketball games and an area beauty pageant have been well received and Ms. Lofton and her team hope that their successes combined with a growing interest in the field will help them gain the support and equipment they need to become a competitive team. They hope to also get gymnastics into the Jackson schools, a goal shared by Butts County Superintendent Roy Hutchinson.

With their goals always in mind, the group spends many after school hours working on new routines and perfecting old ones. Their talents and energies are sure to keep them "flippin'" their audiences out!

Name That Tune

Until this year, the only music coming from the band room was played by the Marching Red Devils. Chorus was formed this year to give JHS students a chance to express themselves in another area of music as altos, sopranos, tenors, and bases. Under the direction of Mrs. Beth Childs, this musical organization has small membership, but the voices of these few sing out sweet notes and melodies.

Too Cool For School

With a record breaking temperature of -10 degrees Fahrenheit, Butts County schools were forced to close January 21 and 22.

"Common sense, and not frozen pipes not heating problems, was the reason for the school closings," said Superintendent Loy Hutcheson. The administration was worried about the students who walked to school or wait for the buses.

Not everyone, however, was out of school those two days, the teachers had to report to school early Tuesday morning to work in their classrooms for a teacher work day.

Classrooms were empty on January 21 and 22.

Crowdbusters from JHS

Seated: Paul Whitmire, Rad Maddox; standing: Eddie Berry, Chris Thurston.

Van Halen . . . Prince . . . Boy George . . . Michael Jackson . . . Bruce Springsteen!!!! These musical stars, just to name a few, came to Atlanta this year to perform sold-out concerts. Unlike the other fans attending these concerts who had to battle the crowds and strain for a good view, several JHS students were paid to be concert security guards. Chris Thurston, Paul Whitmire, Eddie Berry, and Rad Maddox were hired to keep the people out of restricted areas and off the stage. Unfortunately, the guys never had a chance to meet the stars but they did have some of the best views in the Omni.

Seniors Get A Head Start

Mrs. Patricia Paterson, English instructor from Gordon, advises Mike Sexton and Adam Grant about an upcoming paper.

This year, 15 seniors got a head start on their college educations by taking joint enrollment college English and Math courses while they were still in high school. Joint enrollment is a program that was started many years ago between JHS and Gordon Junior College whereby advanced seniors take college courses and get college credit from Gordon. Both English 101 and 102 and Math 115 and 116 were taught during the fall and winter quarters. To be eligible for the college credit, the JHS student must have a minimum score of 900 on the SAT and pay Gordon's tuition fees. Instructors from Gordon came to the JHS campus on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. On Tuesday and Thursday, Mrs. Houghtaling and Mrs. Lunsford assisted the students with their assignments. All of the students who participated in the program agreed that the classes were more challenging and required more study than an average high school course.

Life On the Frontier

In the modern world of technology that we live in today, we sometimes find it necessary to escape from the hustle and bustle of our everyday life. This escape is often found in a weekend retreat to the wilderness. For Kelly Meredith, however, this retreat occurs everyday. Kelly, a JHS sophomore and cheerleader, lives in a log cabin similar to those constructed in the early pioneer days. Her father built the dream house and the Merediths have been living in the house for three and a half years. Providing a natural insulation, the log exterior of the house helps to conserve energy. Even though the exterior appearance of the house looks as though it should be on the pages of a history book, Kelly admits that the inside of the house is filled with modern conveniences. Kelly's house is pictured to the right.

Clovers Bring Good Luck

Competing for a place in Clovers and Company, Georgia's 4-H entertainment review is tough. After all, there are only so many positions and with 80 to 100 people auditioning, just one out of every 4 who audition will make it. This year Glenn Grant, a JHS junior and an active Butts County 4-H'er, used his enthusiasm and musical talent to catch the judges' eyes to win a position in the show's band. As a member of the band, Glenn is part of the backbone of the whole production. During the show, Glenn does a spectacular solo on the soprano sax, and he is responsible for the show's special effects.

The talented group has performed before distinguished audiences such as the State Legislature, Georgia Farm Bureau, and State 4-H Congress. Because of its growing reputation, Clovers and Company was invited to perform at National 4-H Conference in Washington, D.C., in April. Glenn commented, "All of the members of Clovers and Company work hard and put in many hours to mold the group together into a talented, special group of performers." Pictured to the left is Glenn practicing for a show.

Excellence In Education

A plus!

Justin Waits was named as a finalist to receive a National Merit Scholarship from the National Merit Foundation. National Merit is an honor given to students who excel at taking the PSAT/NMSQT, which is a test all college-oriented students take their junior year.

To achieve this honor students must first apply to become a National Merit Scholar. Receiving written commendations from teachers and from Principal Donny James, Waits mailed his application along with a personal essay to the National Merit Foundation. After 15,000 applications had been screened, 5,500 students from across the United States, including Justin, were chosen as National Merit Finalist.

When asked how he felt about receiving this honor, Waits replied, "It was a lot of trouble, but it has been worth it!"

Justin, who is a very successful student, has excelled in many other things during his high school career. Last year he won the National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Award.

Waits' plans for the future are to attend Mercer University as a Pre-Med student. Since Justin has been chosen as a National Merit Finalist, he will now be eligible for a $2000 scholarship and possible national recognition.

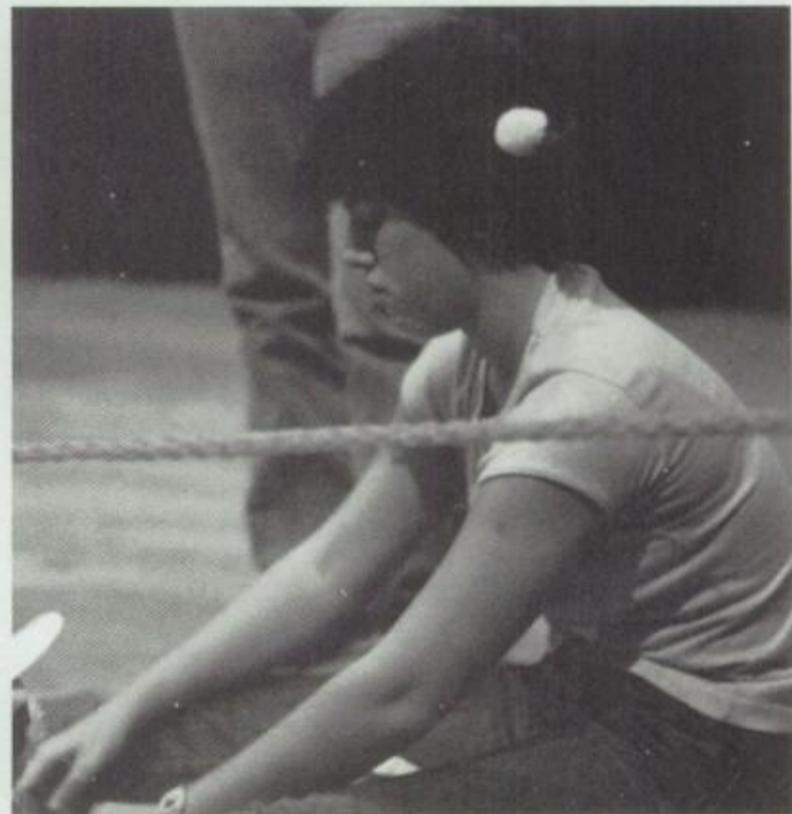

Although students are recognized many times throughout the year for their outstanding work, teachers seldom get any glory. This year, however, two teachers, Mrs. Nancy Houghtaling and Ms. Linda Garrard, have been singled out for being excellent teachers at JHS.

Mrs. Houghtaling, chair person of the English Department, was named as the Butts County Teacher-of-the-Year. Mrs. Houghtaling has been teaching at JHS since 1969. Since then she has been named STAR Teacher six times, and last year she received a commendation from the Georgia Legislature recognizing her as an outstanding educator. When asked how she felt about being chosen as Teacher-of-the-Year, Mrs. Houghtaling commented, "I am truly thrilled to receive this honor."

Linda Garrard had the distinct honor of being chosen as the local DAR chapter's History Teacher-of-the-Year. "I think it's great to be honored for something I enjoy doing," said Garrard. Ms. Garrard has been teaching at JHS for four years. During the summer of 1983, Ms. Garrard was chosen by Freedom's Foundation to participate in a Civil War workshop. She toured the Eastern battlefields with 49 other history teachers.

Many students will agree that both Mrs. Houghtaling and Ms. Garrard are outstanding teachers at JHS and will continue to be for many years to come.

The 1985 Imprint was dedicated to the theme "Games People Play" to encourage each individual at JHS to recognize and develop his or her own skills in order that he or she might be a winner in the race of life. So often, winners get used to winning and losers get used to losing and this pattern continues until a change is made.

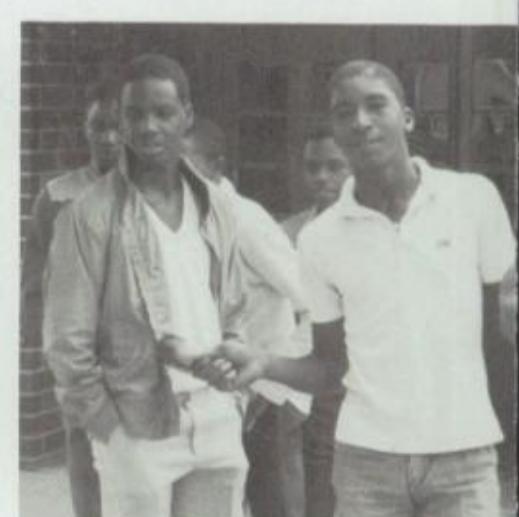

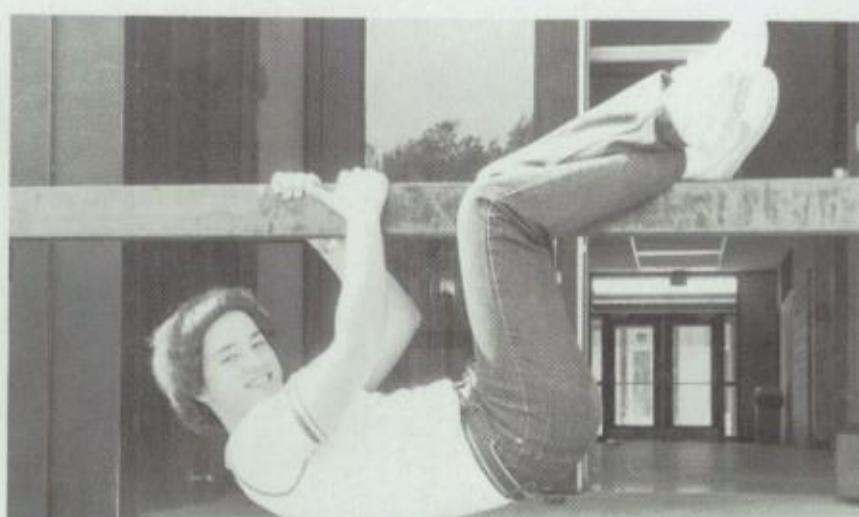

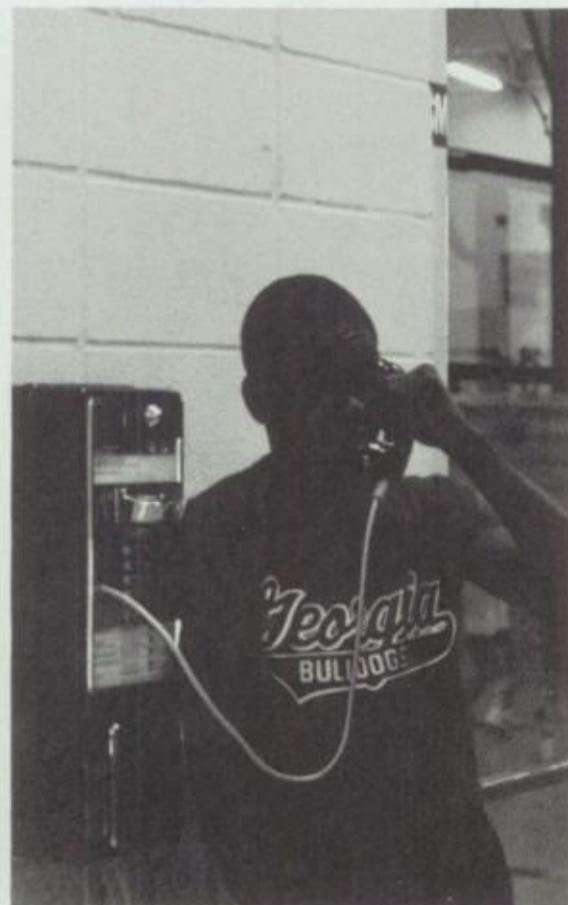

To the 1985 Imprint staff I say "thank you". Each one of you are very talented individuals. It was the combination of these special talents and personalities that brought about one of the best JHS Imprints. Also, you never gave up and you remained patient despite my constant pleas for perfection about tool lines, copy, captions, and pictures.

As each game nears its completion, we players tend to concede the win or loss for that moment and look forward to the next game. It is believed by many that the number of wins and losses is all important; others believe that it is more important how we play the game.

Both arguments are valid, but it is more likely that it doesn't matter whether we win or lose . . . until we lose! With that in mind, every player should strive to win the games of life, find solace in knowing a game was well played, and face each loss with the desire and determination to win the next one!
